A Health and Safety Handbook for Action

This new 180-page book from UC Berkeley’s Labor Occupational Health Program is a valuable resource for those who want to promote worker health and safety while building their unions and community groups at the same time.

It includes:

- Examples of successful workplace health and safety campaigns from around the country.
- Strategies to actively engage workers in advocating for their own protection.
- Specific tools for winning safety improvements, such as collecting information, using legal rights, and working with the community.
- Step-by-step instructions for using these tools, complete with checklists, forms, and resources.

Available in January 2006. $25.00 (shipping included). To order, use the form below. For more information, go to the LOHP website at www.lohp.org or call us.

Labor Occupational Health Program
University of California, Berkeley
2223 Fulton Street
Berkeley, CA 94720-5120
(510) 642-5507

ORDER FORM—Tools of the Trade: A Health and Safety Handbook for Action

Name: ________________________________________________________________

Address:  _____________________________________________________________________________________

City: __________________________________________  State: ___________  Zip:_________________________

_________________  Number of copies ($25.00 each. Price includes postage and handling.)

_________________  Total enclosed  (Checks payable to: The Regents of UC)