Cal/OSHA says employers must provide employees with:

- A safe and healthful workplace
- Training on the hazards in their job, including how to handle chemicals
- Safety equipment that workers need to do the job
Jill’s Difficult Day at Work

Uh Oh!

What happened here?

Sorry, I dropped the box and everything spilled.

Get rags from the bathroom and clean it up right away!

I was told not to handle chemicals. I haven’t been trained and I don’t have gloves. Plus, this might make my asthma worse.

There’s no time for training and we don’t have any gloves. If you want to keep working here you need to pitch in.
