According to federal OSHA regulation 29 CFR §1910.120 and Cal/OSHA GISO 5192, workers involved in hazardous waste treatment, storage, or disposal (TSD) must attend a 24-hour TSD course when they begin work, and an 8-hour Hazardous Waste Operations and Emergency Response (HAZWOPER) Refresher course each year.

The UC Berkeley Labor Occupational Health Program runs NIEHS-certified 24-hour TSD and 8-hour HAZWOPER Refresher courses throughout the year in both English and Spanish. The topics covered in these courses include hazardous materials, hazardous waste operations and emergency response. Classes are small in size and emphasize problem-solving and simulated field activities.
